Service Classification - Check One Category to note where most of your volunteer activity took place:

Youth Achievement

Includes volunteer activities such as mentoring, coaching, tutoring, and improving literacy in areas such as reading and finance, to keep young people engaged academically in education.

Parks and Open Spaces and the Natural Environment

Includes volunteer efforts to conserve and protect our park lands and gardens, neighborhood clean-ups, and beautification projects to create safe playgrounds. It also includes creating safe, meaningful experiences and outdoor activities for individuals to enjoy the environment and our natural resources.

Healthy Communities

Includes volunteer efforts to help the elderly, disabled, diseased, hungry or homeless and to improve the economic health of the community. These could include volunteering for health and nutrition education services, immunization campaigns, resume building, career training, disease screenings, hospital support, blood drives, veterans outreach, working with local public health programs, micro-enterprise, and business development.

Public Safety and Emergency Response

Includes volunteer efforts to help individuals and families make their homes and communities safer from the threats of crime, terrorism, and disasters of all kinds. Includes preparedness training, volunteer firefighters, and programs like Citizen Corps, Neighborhood Watch, Medical Reserve Corps, and Volunteers in Police Service. This also includes animal services.

Can volunteer hours completed on campus count as individual service?

Yes, as long as the service falls within the guidelines posted above. In order to approve the hours you completed on campus, a letter signed by your supervisor explaining what service you rendered must be submitted to the iCED at your campus.

What type of documentation is needed to verify your hours?

Everyone must turn in the “Service Verification Form” (see 1st page here) and all the hours must have been entered and verified in the MDC Changemaker Hub. This requires one of the forms of documentation listed below:

- Signed letter from agency/school with the number of service hours completed and brief explanation of services rendered.
- Signed timesheet/volunteer log from agency/school verifying your hours of service.
- Signed documentation from agency/school or student club/organization advisor.

All hours must be supported by documentation with signature from supervisor. Attach documents such as letters and certificates to this form. The documents must also show the number of hours and dates and be verified by a volunteer coordinator or supervisor. If you have completed service-learning, please include a copy of your hour report(s). If a summary of your service-learning is needed please visit the iCED office at your campus (see above).
